SOUTHEAST ALASKA

Southeast Alaska is a world of forested islands with abundant wildlife and rivers of ice. Nature is the heart of this beautiful and rugged frontier. On land see bears bald eagles that soar over as you float along its rivers. Out on the water see whales breach, harbor seals lounging on icebergs and glaciers calving as you cruise its waters. Let us show you it all!

From the eagles eye the beauty emerges when you take a floatplane over the ice fields or a helicopter flight that lands you on a glacier. Walk or trek this extreme landscape. Fly through the Misty Fjords, we have so much to offer you during you stay something for everyone. Great land tours in all the ports, hiking, biking, sport fishing, horse riding, kayaking, whale watching and of course the amazing trip up the White Pass Railway on the World famous train tracks of the Old Klondike Gold Diggers. It is all here for you to explore. This is your chance, experience Alaska, don't miss it.

Tours will sell out fast and availability is limited. We recommend that one person from each party attend our live presentation (see inside your Freestyle Daily for time and location of the talk) for you to hear and learn all there is to see and experience throughout each of these amazing ports. Join your Shore Excursion Manager for all the information to make your vacation one to remember. Taste Alaska and remember it for life!

MAKE UP BOAT DRILL - 10:15AM

All the guests that missed the Emergency Life Boat Drill yesterday must attend a Make Up Boat Drill today. Meeting time is 10:15am in the Galaxy of the Stars, Deck 12, Fwd. This is a mandatory Make Up Drill! Please bring your life jackets and be on time.
